

RESOURCES FOR TELEWORK/TELECOMMUTING PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

Research/Resources:

- RRTC on Workplace Supports and Job Retention, Virginia Commonwealth University (Research and Findings in the area of Telework available on their website)
 - www.worksupport.com
- MITE-Midwest Institute for Telecommuting Education, A Division of Resource, Inc. (Outcomes related to a Federally Funded Research Project related to Telework and additional resources related to telework)
 - www.mite.org/telecommutdisabilities/telecommutdisabilities.html
- TeleworkTools.Org
 - A Comprehensive Toolkit to Telecommuting developed under a grant with the Office of Disability Policy (ODEP), US Department of Labor
 - <http://www.teleworktools.org>
- Access to Telework Financing Programs (Federally Financed Program for People with Disabilities)
 - <http://www.resnaprojects.org/AFTAP/telework/RESNA.html>

Articles or Fact Sheets:

Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) Enforcement Guidance and Fact Sheets:

- Work At Home/Telework as a Reasonable Accommodation
 - <http://www.eeoc.gov/facts/telework.html>
- Enforcement Guidance on Reasonable Accommodation and Undue Hardship Under the Americans with Disabilities Act
 - <http://www.eeoc.gov/policy/docs/accommodation.html>

Stanley, R., Messinger, M., “Telework Options for People with Disabilities in the 21st Century”, Southeast Disability and Business Technical Assistance Center (SEDBTAC), May 2007. www.sedbtac.org/ada/publications/teleworkoptions_052207.doc