Listening to the Session

The audio for today’s webinar is being broadcast through your computer or via telephone for those that registered for that option. If using your computer, please make sure your speakers are turned on or your headphones are plugged in.

– You can control the audio broadcast via the Audio & Video panel. You can adjust the sound by “sliding” the sound bar left or right.
– If you are having sound quality problems check your audio controls by going through the Audio Wizard which is accessed by selecting the microphone icon on the Audio & Video panel.

Listening to the Webinar, continued

MOBILE Users (iPhone, iPad, or Android device (including Kindle Fire HD))

Individuals may listen to the session using the Blackboard Collaborate Mobile App (Available Free from the Apple Store, Google Play or Amazon)

Closed Captioning is not visible via the Mobile App and there is limited accessibility for screen reader/voiceover users.
Captioning

- Real-time captioning is provided during this session via the webinar platform.
- The caption screen can be accessed by choosing the icon in the Audio & Video panel.
- Once selected you will have the option to resize the captioning window, change the font size and save the transcript.

VIDEO

- A short (Captioned) video will be played during this session.
- The Video will be “pushed out” to play on the media player that you have set as the “default” on your computer (i.e. Windows Media Player, QuickTime, Real-Player, etc.)
- Individuals on the telephone only (not signed into the webinar platform) will not receive the video
- Close the video player when the video concludes.

Submitting Questions

- You may type and submit questions in the Chat Area Text Box or press Control-M and enter text in the Chat Area. You will not be able to see the question after you submit but it will be viewable by the presenters.
- If you are connected via a mobile device you may submit questions in the chat area within the App
- If you are listening by phone you will be instructed by the Operator on how to ask a question.
- Questions may also be emailed to webinars@ada-audio.org

Please note: This webinar is being recorded and can be accessed on the ADA Audio Conference Series website at www.ada-audio.org within 24 hours after the conclusion of the session. The edited written transcript will be posted at this same site three days following the conclusion of the session.
Customize Your View

- Resize the Whiteboard where the Presentation slides are shown to make it smaller or larger by choosing from the drop down menu located above and to the left of the whiteboard. The default is "fit page".

Customize Your View continued

- Resize/Reposition the Chat, Participant and Audio & Video panels by “detaching” and using your mouse to reposition or “stretch/shrink”. Each panel may be detached using the icon in the upper right corner of each panel.

Technical Assistance

- If you experience any technical difficulties during today’s session:
  1. In webinar platform: Send a private chat message to the host by double clicking “Great Lakes ADA” in the participant list. A tab titled “Great Lakes ADA” will appear in the chat panel. Type your comment in the text box and “enter” (Keyboard - F6, Arrow up or down to locate “Great Lakes ADA” and select to send a message); or
  2. By Email webinars@ada-audio.org; or
  3. Call 877-232-1990 (V/TTY)
New Customer Service and Accessible Meetings Resources

Marian Vessels and Nancy Horton
Mid-Atlantic ADA Center

Introduction

• The Mid-Atlantic ADA Center and TransCen Inc. sponsored this update and publication in recognition of the 25th anniversary of the transformational Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990.
• This is an updated, digital version of A Guide to Planning Accessible Meetings, originally published by Independent Living Research Utilization in 1993, written by co-authors June Isaacson Kailes and Darrell Jones.

Accessible Meeting Guide

• The updated version includes regulatory updates along with practical guidance from a host of meeting planning professionals, subject matter experts, and even June Kailes herself.
Reason For The Guide

• It is our goal that this guide will help make every meeting, event, and conference accessible
• It is with great pleasure that we share this work, which will continue to be updated over time to best serve the needs of planners, and help ensure that all meeting participants are fully engaged and have equal opportunities to contribute to public discourse, learning, and advancement

Benefits Of This Guide

• Modified and updated over time
  – Emerging practices become best practices,
  – As technologies evolve to better foster inclusive practices in all meetings, events, and conferences
  – As these practices fold into an ever-widening circle of gatherings, like weddings, family reunions, and more.

How To Use This Guide

• Information may be repeated in various sections where the inclusion of the information would yield greater clarification for the reader who links directly to a topic of their interest
• The navigation options on the left of the screen are "chapter" titles, and clicking the link will open both introductory text and additional subchapters that further explain or provide resources that may be needed
Interaction with People with Disabilities

- Tips for Interacting With People With Disabilities, by June Kailes
- Choosing Words With Dignity, by the Vermont Developmental Disabilities Council
- Disability Etiquette: Tips on Interacting With People With Disabilities, by the United Spinal Association

Market Case for Accessible Events

Site Selection

- Always ask about the accessibility of facilities when considering event venues
- ADA Checklist for Existing Facilities
- Include an affirmative statement of compliance, or allocation of responsibilities between landlord and tenant
Site Selection Assistance

- Local resources to assist your planning efforts
- What does your event need? Creating a needs assessment
- Request for a bid
- Site inspection
- Recommendations for contracts

Local Resources

- Convention and Visitors Bureau and a Chamber of Commerce
- Centers for Independent Living (CIL)
- Seek a meeting planner with the Certified Meeting Professional (CMP) or Certified Meeting Manager (CMM) designation

Site Inspection

- Once you have scored the top two to three venues, you should visit each to continue the evaluation process
- When possible, plan two visits at a minimum; the first visit should be unannounced to the facility's sales team
- Emergency planning
- Inspection team
Recommendations for Contracts

- ADA compliance clause for the venue.
- ADA compliance clause for the group.
- Mutual cooperation’s in identifying accommodations needed.
- Additional clauses for specific disabilities.
- Disability awareness training for staff.

Pre-Event Attendee Registration and Communications

- Knowing your audience is critical to ensuring that meeting room layouts, menus, and other elements of the event will be optimized so that every participant engages fully.
- Registration materials and forms should ask specifically about your audience’s needs and accommodations.

Sample Questions for Accommodations

- Materials Provided In:
  - [ ] Standard Print
  - [ ] Large Print
  - [ ] Braille
  - [ ] Audio on CD
  - [ ] Text-Only
  - [ ] Electronic Files on Flash Drive (formats may include PDF, Word, Text, and Excel)

- Communication Formats / Aids:
  - [ ] American Sign Language
  - [ ] Transcripts
  - [ ] Contact/Tactile Sign
  - [ ] CART
  - [ ] Assistive Listening Device
Meeting Room Layouts and Considerations

• Creating the most accessible event possible allows all participants to fully participate.

  – Best practices for recommendations for layout planning.
  – Printable room layouts.
  – The presentation area/speakers platform design and considerations.

Accessible Theater Set-Up

Accessible Classroom Style
Audio Visual Components

- This section of the guide includes a full discussion of communications access accommodations for those with hearing loss or who are Deaf, and for those with visual impairments.
  - Managing questions and answer/audience participation.
  - Presentation materials/slides and video

Food and Beverage Service

- When planning for a full meal or a coffee break, access consideration is required in the physical layout and presentation of items.
- The Food Service: Accommodating Diners with Disabilities factsheet provides both legal standards and promising practices for paths of travel/approach to dining spaces, seating, dining table and service counter heights, and other tips for making meal and break areas as accessible as possible.

Food and Beverage Resources

- Recommendations for buffet meals
- Recommendations for planners
- Additional tips and recommendations for meals
Food Allergies and Sensitivities

- According to FARE (Food Allergy and Research Education) “Fifteen million Americans have food allergies – and they are eager to find restaurants [and other venues] that can accommodate their needs.”
- Share information with the catering staff for your function and develop a plan to provide attendees with food items that meet their needs.

Dietary Restrictions: Registration

- Here is a sample of what this section might look like on your registration materials. Including a “none” option can help to ensure all attendees complete the section.
- I have the following dietary restrictions:
  - [ ] None
  - [ ] Vegetarian
  - [ ] Vegan
  - [ ] Organic
  - [ ] Kosher
  - [ ] Gluten-free
  - [ ] Dairy/Casein-free
  - [ ] Sugar-Free
  - [ ] Other: ____________________________________________________
  - [ ] Food Allergies/Intolerances (please list):

Accommodations for Deaf and those with Hearing Loss.

- Under the ADA, auditory and spoken information shared at meetings must be made accessible to those whose disabilities impact communication, including people who are Deaf or hard of hearing and those with speech disabilities.
- Accommodations for people who are deaf-blind may include tactile sign language interpreters, Braille, and tactile signage.
Deaf and Hearing Loss Resources

• Communicating with individuals who are Deaf or hard of hearing.
• Using qualified interpreters.
• Telephones.
• Television and videos.

• Assistive Listening Systems (ALS).
• Speech to text translation services.
• Captioning audio/visual materials.
• Access stations for conferences.

Communicating With Individuals Who Are Deaf or Hard of Hearing

• Speak directly to the individual.
• Maintain eye contact with the individual.
• Interpreters are bound by confidentiality and neutrality.
• Understand how meaning is conveyed.
• Ask for clarification.
• Use writing only for brief encounters.
• Staff training.

Using Qualified Interpreters

• Qualified interpreter is one who is “able to interpret effectively, accurately and impartially both receptively and expressively, using any necessary specialized vocabulary.”
• Using family or friends to interpret.
• Types of Interpreting.
• Finding Sign Language Interpreters.
Telephones

- Video Phones and Relay Services.
- Teletypewriters (TTYs) and Telecommunication Relay Service.
- Captioned Telephones.
- Internet Protocol Relay Services.

Assistive Listening Systems

- FM Systems.
- Induction-loop systems.
- Infrared systems.
- Assistive listening systems can be purchased from many home health and assistive technology companies. For information about lending libraries, rental options, and help determining which equipment to use, contact your state’s Assistive Technology Project, Vocational Rehabilitation Agency, or a local Center for Independent Living.

CART Providers

- Information about CART, including general information and information about equipment for consumers and providers, as well as a provider directory:
  - NCRA – National Court Reporters Association
  - Captioning Matters (created and maintained by NCRA)
  - National Association of the Deaf
  - Stenoscript
- The Office for Deaf and Hard of Hearing in each state government generally make available lists of ASL and other interpreters as well as CART providers.
Access to Printed or Visual Materials

- It is important to have alternative format options available, typically in the form of large print, hardcopy Braille, audio recording and electronic file(s).
- If there were no requests for alternative formatted material, then materials should at least be available in large print and electronic file(s).

Printed and Visual Materials Resources

- Formatting printed materials.
- Producing printed materials in large print.
- Brailling printed materials.
- Electronic file(s) as an alternate format.
- Ensuring online files and documents are accessible.
- On-Site readers.
- Formats for announcements and messages.
- Orienting attendees to the meeting space.

Invisible Wounds

- For those with invisible wounds - especially veterans, survivors of trauma, and those with a wide range of neurologic conditions arising from injury - meetings, events, and conferences can offer unique challenges.
- Big crowds, loud noises, blocked line of sight to exits, and many other typical features of events can be uncomfortable to the point of avoidance.
Both personal assistants and service animals may be used by individuals to assist with mobility, balance, navigation, communication, and other issues that result from an ever-widening list of conditions, such as post-traumatic stress, seizure disorders, low sight or hearing, short-term memory loss, traumatic brain injury, and more.

Personal Assistants

- Ensure seating plans include room for each assistant, both within meeting rooms and meal service(s)
- In overnight accommodations, room blocks should be adequate to cover the addition of assistants
- While there are no regulatory requirements for accommodating the assistant in the event, typically assistants are not charged any conference or meeting fees.

Service Animals

- A review of this ADA Service Animal Factsheet is good to include in your event team orientation and your meeting facility staff
- Prepare your event staff for the possibility of encountering service animals. Canine Companions for Independence offers etiquette tips
- Point out the closest access for comfort breaks / relief areas for service animals in your attendee materials
Tips for Presenters

• Tips for Preparing a PowerPoint Presentation:
• Use a sans serif font that is at least 22 point
• A light colored background with dark text is preferred
• Use a plain background without any watermark, photo, or design behind the text

Tips for Presenters continued

• Use a PowerPoint as an outline for your presentation, with only short sentences and/or bulleted phrases (about 4 lines of text / 40 words per slide)
• Keep it short. As a rule, one slide for every two minutes of speaking time
• Photographs, images, clip art, graphics, maps, and charts cannot be read by screen readers - embed "Alt Text" descriptions with images
• Include verbal descriptions of all photos / images during your presentation

Tips for Attendees

• Communicate early and often with the event hosts; complete registration forms with as much detail as possible, and reach out to the hosts a few weeks before the event to ask if they have secured the accommodations requested
• When the event includes an overnight stay, include explicit requests in your reservation, and contact the hotel management a day or so in advance, and the day of your arrival
• Be patient but firm in your request
at your service

• The Mid-Atlantic ADA Center has partnered with Storyline Motion Pictures to produce this dynamic new twenty minute customer service film
• Best practices featuring national disability leaders offering insights, tips and recommendations on how to provide exemplary customer service to individuals with disabilities.
• 20-minute film in its full length or as the 2 minute brief Preview.

Uses for at your service film

• Disability etiquette training
• Onboarding new staff
• Review for current staff

www.ADAhospitality.org
ADA Audio Conference Series
New Customer Service and Meeting Resources Available
November 17, 2015

Presented By:

Marian Vessels
Director
mvessels@transcen.org
301-217-0124
Mid-Atlantic ADA Center

Nancy Horton
TA Specialist
nhorton@transcen.org
301-217-0124
Mid-Atlantic ADA Center

ADA National Network

10 Regional Centers Providing:
• Information
• Guidance
• Materials
• Newsletter/E-Bulletin
• Training
• Toll-free phone number: 800-949-4232 V/TTY
• Website: www.ADATA.org

Questions?
Thank you for participating in today’s ADA-Audio Conference Session

The next scheduled session is:

December 15, 2015
“ASK THE EEOC: QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS”

Register at: www.ada-audio.org or call 877-232-1990 V/TTY