TITLE II ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS

These documents (Self Evaluation & Transition Plan) evidence a public entity’s good faith efforts to comply with Title II’s requirements.

- DOJ Title II Technical Assistance Manual
POLL QUESTION #2
Do you have all of your administrative requirements in place?
A. YES, most definitely!
B. We have most in place.
C. We have some in place.
D. We are stuck in the mud.

POLL QUESTION #3
What administrative requirement is giving you the biggest challenge?
A. Designated responsible employee
B. Notice to the public
C. Grievance procedure
D. Self evaluation
E. Transition plan
F. None. We TOTALLY know what we are doing!
Why should I care about the Title II administrative requirements now?

Reasons “why” it may be necessary to revisit your ADA self-evaluation & transition plan:

➢ It was never completed or only partially implemented in the 1990’s.
➢ Insufficient resources were allocated to community members with disabilities.
➢ Facility changes have been made and the original data is out of date.
➢ Agency policies have evolved.
➢ New leadership, staff, and/or access team members have come on board.
➢ The accessibility standards have been revised to include facilities not previously addressed (playgrounds, pools, golf courses, sports facilities, etc.).
➢ To demonstrate your agency’s “good faith effort” should an ADA compliant or litigation be filed.
Planning for Inclusion

Accessibility Management & ADA Compliance starts with PLANNING!

Responsible Employee
ADA Coordinator vs CEO
Purpose & public liaison
Decision-making authority
Role
- Planning & coordinating compliance activities
- Overseeing the 5 administrative requirements
- Receiving & investigating complaints
Originating department?
- Human Resources
- Planning
- Safety / Risk Management
- Community Engagement

ADA/ACCESSIBILITY COORDINATOR

ADA COMPLIANCE IS EVERYONE’S RESPONSIBILITY

ACCESSIBILITY MANAGEMENT

The process is evaluated to determine if the needs are met.

Business purpose and mission are defined.

Shared values are clarified.

Responsibilities are delegated.

Information is gathered.

Consensus is built.

Implementing an Accessibility Management Program

Designated Responsible Employee / CEO

Presentations at external group meetings
Surveys / Needs Assessments
Facilitated involvement of interested individuals

ADA SELF - EVALUATION

Comprehensive review of policies and practices
The public entity must:
• Identify non-compliance policies and practices
• Modify policies and practices to bring them into compliance
Opportunity for people with disabilities and interested parties to review and comment
On file for public inspection for 3 years (for entities w/50+ employees)
• List of interested persons consulted
• Description of areas examined and identified problems
• Description of modifications
Key Principles of the ADA

REASONABLE MODIFICATIONS

Changes to policies, practices and procedures to ensure people with disabilities can participate and benefit from the program, service or activity

Required unless the modification would fundamentally alter the nature of its service, program, or activity.

ADA DEFENSES

Direct threat to the health or safety of others
- Individualized assessment; nature; duration; severity of the risk; probability that the potential injury will actually occur; can the reasonable modifications, auxiliary aids or services mitigate the risk?

Fundamental alteration to the nature of the service, program, or activity

Undue financial and administrative burden
- Public entity has burden of proof
- Decision made by CEO
